Mr. Richard,
I'm speechless, It's more than anything I dreamed! I'm so happy!!! I can't find the right words to express what I feel. I'm so happy that you help me to have this opportunity to start my life in U.S.

Max,

Received your approval notice from the Citizenship & Immigration Services today. You were granted full resident status without the 2 year condition. My office will send you a letter regarding your new status. The Resident Card will arrive in the mail in one to three weeks. Make sure you continue to save documents that show that you and your wife are married and living together such as joint tax return, bank records, auto insurance, and school records (for your step son that states you're the step father), etc....

Sincerely yours,

Richard J. Tasoff*
